

Stories, Rhymes, and Good Times!

Volume 16, 2006-2007

Limericks! Writing in 3rdgrade

By: Mrs. Knight

The 3rd grade students wrote limericks for you to enjoy!

A limerick is a five-line poem that is intended to be humorous or silly.

A Limerick

By Julia Nychyk

There once was a girl named Jill.
She tumbled down a hill.
And broke her arm bad.
And was really sad.
Poor little girl named Jill.

A Limerick

By Gracie Wall

There once was a lion named Brian!
Who kept on lyin, lyin, and lyin!
He was scared when butterflies went by!
Brian the lion oh my, oh my!
Brian the lion kept on shinin, shinin!

A Limerick

By Drew Lewis

Once there was a boy named Bow.
He was very slow the boy named Bow.
And he ran in the relay race.
But he lost the first place.
That was the sad end of the boy named Bow.

A Limerick

By Madison Clinger

There once was a young fellow named Dog.
Who ran around town chasing some big hogs.
He then fell down a hill.
And he obviously got killed.
That was the last of the man who chased hogs.

A Limerick

By Christopher Williams

There once a shark his name is Mark.
Who really like the bark.
He once got in a fight .
He got punched out of sight.
That was the end of Mark the shark.

A Limerick

By Carson Swanson

There once was a girl named Janet.
She sat on a hammock in another planet.
And she found a rock.
That liked to talk.
And that's the end of Janet and the planet.

A Limerick

By Chloe Brown

There once was a young lady named Jill.
She fell down a hill.
Ken came to save her.
He wore a coat made out of fur.
That was the end of Jill.

A Limerick

By Alex Quattrone

There once was a dog named Max.
Max had a lot of earwax.
And Max can not hear.
So people have to get near.
And that's how Max liked to relax!

A Limerick

By Alexander Mazzorana

There once was a dog named Fill.
He sat on top of a duck's bill.
The dog's father came and was mad.
And the dog got off because he was sad.
And so he laid on a window sill.

A Limerick

By Abigail Reynolds

There once was a dolphin that was shy.
He really loved eating pie.
Then he met another dolphin named Sue.
He hated the stink of her shoe.
But then he got a sty in his eye.

A Limerick

By Gabriella Ebenger

There once was a girl named Jill.
She had a pet that was ill.
She went to the vet.
To get a new pet.
Then the new pet fell down a hill.

A Limerick

By Evan McKenna

There once was a boy named Damon.
He had a big pet raven.
He gave the raven a smack
And that was the end of the raven

A LimerickBy Cade Middleton

There was a man named Jose.
 When he sat upon some hay.
 And then he fell down a hill.
 And met a girl named Jill.
 Now you will never see that fool Jose!

A LimerickBy Tatiana Barone

There once was a silly flower
 Who ate a lot of silly powder.
 And the flower died.
 She lied that she died.
 Oh that silly flower that ate powder.

A LimerickBy Ridley Morgan

There once was a dog named Noodle.
 And Noodle was a very silly poodle.
 At the house he made disaster.
 That greatly angered his master.
 This is the end of Noodle the poodle!

A LimerickBy Peyton Randolph

There once was a leprechaun named Peyton and he loved the sky.
 He loved the sky because he could fly
 So he hid his gold in a cloud.
 Until one day a man in a helicopter found his mound.
 And that is how Peyton the leprechaun lost his gold.

A LimerickBy Peyton Clark

There once was a girl named Sue.
 She liked to make rabbit stew!
 Her stew was so fine.
 Her friends eat it all the time
 And that's all Sue knew how to do.

A LimerickBy Nick Mantz

There once was a boy named Cliff.
 One day Cliff went to the edge of a canyon.
 Cliff was scared of heights.
 Cliff wanted to throw a rock down the cliff.
 But instead he tripped over a rock and fell down in the fall he died in the cliff.

A LimerickBy McKenzie Yelvington

There once was a dog named Fluffy.
 Then she saw a cat named Tuffy.
 And they both fell in the pond.
 And landed on a fawn.

That was the end of Fluffy and Tuffy.

A LimerickBy Marissa Sullivan

There once was a girl named Sue.
 Her father cried all day long boo-hoo-hoo.
 Because he lost his dog flying.
 That he found out that he was buying.
 Then he met a girl named Lou and she loved Sue.

A LimerickBy Michael Collier

There once was a fish named Hog.
 Who sat on a dog and watched frogs.
 One day he sat on a bear.
 And he didn't care.
 So that's the end of the fish named Hog.

A LimerickBy Janet Oliver

There once was a little bunny named Diger.
 Who had a big friend named Tiger.
 Diger and Tiger could not share.
 So Diger and Tiger made a fare.
 And that was the end of Diger and Tiger.

